Baltzer & Shaw

A REPUBLICAN candidate for office in one of the mountain counties of Kentucky made a stump speech the other day, in which he said, with a great emphasis, "the law of supply and demand is another of those things which will be repeated just as soon as the Republican get in power."

Strout had taken another tumble, and surprised the jobbers, who had concluded that it was already done to the bottom notch. The reduction extends to all grades of refined, the average one-eighth of one cent per pound, and still the salmists howlers are telling the people that a tariff is not a tax.
